June Meeting

This month, the program is Clothesline Exhibits. The object is to mount one or more stamps on a page and tell a whole story in that page. See example in next column.

We will set all the pages up and let our peers decide if we were successful in telling our stories. You are encouraged to put your finished pages in a frame that will be set aside at StampFest for the clothesline pages.

Clothesline Samples

Grand Duchess of Luxembourg

This is what happens when you purchase something and are not sure what it is. In this case, I bought a postcard from Danny Peoples thinking that it showed the royal princesses of Austria.

Turns out that these are indeed royal princesses but of Luxembourg.

In the center is Grand Duchess Marie Adalheid. She is surrounded by her sisters. Marie Adalheid became grand duchess in 1912, abdicated in 1919 in favor of her sister Charlotte, and died in 1924.

Grand Duchess Charlotte (sitting in back) became grand duchess in 1919 and ruled until 1964 when she abdicated in favor of her son, Jean.

The other sisters are Marie Louise, Marie Theres, and Elisabeth.

Still a pretty card, right? Queen Victoria!
